IMPERIALISM—RADICALISM.

Radicalism, Imperialism—these two—twin brothers—or, rather, parent and child—are now plainly the issue with which the American people are forced to contend.

We have long striven, and we think not altogether unsuccessfully, to show that the course of the dominant party, despotic always to the uttermost limit that it dared to go, was towards a governmental despotism. That we did not judge wrongly, and that we did not charge home to the party with undue severity, is manifest in recent developments, and especially in the open efforts now being made by the Union Leagues, the secret councils of the Radical party, to change the form of our Government from that of a republic to an empire. We are not surprised at the opening out of this imperial bud. As we have said many times before, the seed of something like it has been sown, and it is a law of nature, as well as of cause and effect, that every seed must bring forth fruit after its kind. For years past Radicalism has had full and undivided sway, and planted what seed it would, and nourished it with blood. All revolutions in government are preceded by Radicalism. Nay, all revolutions are Radicalism carried out to its logical results; and Radicalism, if allowed to develop itself, usually leads to revolution. This is history. We know no reason why such universal laws that apply to other nations and to other times should not be applied to our nation and to our times. To subvert our fundamental law and break up our Federal Union is Radicalism. This Radicalism is revolution. This revolution is an inevitable step before imperialism. Imperialism is now advocated by those that overthrew the Constitution, destroyed the Union, brought about revolution—by Radicalism—by Radicals. And it is advocated by none others; tolerated by none others. None others would have it—would submit to it. All others oppose it—condemn it. All the instincts of the American people, as a mass, are in deep rooted antagonism to it. Their feelings, their prejudices, their reason, their experience hold it in abhorrence, and would condemn it unheard. It is the apostles and followers of Radicalism alone, a fraction of the American people, that dare to or desire to moot it, or to bring it about. This desire has been showing itself for years. Extremes, ruling remorselessly, have indicated it. Overstepping the boundaries of law is the first important step towards all governmental overthrow. Overthrowing laws, and defying laws, and enacting forbidden laws have, under the dominion and under the legislation of the party in power, become a habit. Of course some plausible pretext was given from time to time for everything of this kind done. The excuse was changed as the occasion called for. With artifice were the American people blinded and misled. A cloak of some kind was always necessary, and a cloak was always had. Behind this cloak, on which were emblazoned in self asserting conspicuousness the delusive mottoes, loyalty, liberty emancipation—on which should have been inscribed hatred, revenge, treachery—was the premeditated betrayal of republicanism plotted and brought into a systematized, settled purpose; and now that purpose is in the process of being carried out with a corner of the curtain raised, as typified in the Imperialist newspaper started by the Union League in New York, and the Empire, started by the Union League in Philadelphia.

As we before remarked, we are not surprised at this. We have felt and foreseen that something of the kind was approaching. Arbitrary power, when once usurped by a political party and used for years, never surrenders without a fight.—Power is a thing insolent and audacious beyond all things, and desperate when pushed to an extremity. It is the sword of tyrants, and that by virtue of which they dare to tread upon their subjects with a heavy heel. Power crowns the outlaw, discrowns and crucifies the king, and takes from a people their country. Power tramples upon law, blots States from the map, casts citizens arbitrarily into dungeons, and takes from them their citizenship. Such power, so used, have the Radical party, with the lawless ambition and revolutionary aim of tyrants, by force and fraud possessed themselves of. They have long resolved not to surrender it without a desperate struggle. They see that to continue to hold it and exercise it is utterly inconsistent with the existence of the Republic, which is presumed to rest upon common consent, and to yield the greatest good to the greatest number. An empire, therefore, a Government of power, is the shape into which they propose to mould American institutions, thinking thereby to keep their place, and to rule by hereditary, if not divine, right. They have everything in their own hands, (by reason) and they think by this means to keep it there. To this end, long contemplated, they have strengthened themselves by secret societies and combinations of all kinds; by monopolies of every conceivable description; by vast sums of money in their party coffers, filched from the pockets of the half-dreaming, unsuspecting masses, whom shouts of loyalty and the cant of patriotism have been decieved; by a large standing army, and by such other methods and means, seen and unseen, within their reach. By the old Democratic theory—the theory of the Constitution, and that upon which the Government was formed and conducted until the calamitous accession of the Radical imperial party—powers were distributed to the extremities, and for wise purposes, withheld from settling around the heart, the Federal Government, but, as there was every reason to fear, it should some day prove disastrous. The Radical imperial party, on the contrary, have acted on the very opposite theory—that of drawing all distributed powers to the centre, making a consolidated government, a strong government, an oligarchical government, a government for the few, not for the many, a centralized government, vested with power never intended, plainly guarded against, and wholly inconsistent with a republican government, such as the founders created. Having thus, in a great measure, torn down the fabric which the fathers built, and in which free and prosperous and happy generations have dwelt, they have laid, or are laying, a foundation of their own, with centralization as the chief corner stone, upon which they propose to erect a superstructure of imperialism, into which they hope, by open force or by beguiling words, to coax-ign the American people, with themselves as lords and masters.—National Intelligencer.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, MAY 13, 1869.

WILSON COURT.

We made our first visit to this county on Tuesday last. In Court we found Judge Thomas, of the League, on the bench, and John V. Sherrard, District Attorney, prosecuting on the part of the State. Only 14 cases were on the State Docket for larceny, while most State Dockets would show from 20 to 50. On the Civil Docket there were only 132 cases, while Edgecombe, Granville and other counties have near one thousand. Orange, Alamance and other counties have a less number only because they have less population to sue and sell out each other. Judging from the Docket, and what we could see and learn from members of the bar, we think Wilson as well off as any county in the State. There seems to be entire unanimity among the people with regard to politics and work. Every man was hopeful that a good crop this year would make him comfortable, and that another election would silence Holden, Billy Henderson, Starbuck, Jaybird Jones and Judge Tourgee. We have seldom spoken to a much larger or more attentive audience.—Both white and black seemed anxious to hear what the "hands" had been doing in the Legislature, and how it was that Lit Sheffield had such influence among them.—We were greatly surprised to see how old Toisnot Depot could in so short a time be turned into the prettiest and most thrifty village of the State.

The secret is this: it was done by regular hard work and diligent composting.—The country around built up the town, by the products of their labor in the shape of cotton, turpentine, naval stores, to say nothing of the products of the truck farm. We heard even the negroes talk about their peas and strawberries, and that the cold weather was greatly against the truck farms. We saw a man hauling into his barn yard some rather poor dirt scraped from the side of the Railroad track. "What are you doing?" we asked. The reply was, "making compost for next year."—"How can you afford to do such work at this season of the year?" "I am waiting for the cotton to come up and then I will work at that." Now we believe an Orange man would have gone fishing or squirrel hunting while the cotton was coming up. At all events, we know he would not have been making compost, for next year, while waiting for his cotton to come up.

THE BAR.

Some twenty lawyers attend Wilson Bar. The resident lawyers are Kenan & Dunham, Woodard & Murray, G. W. Blunt, J. W. Lancaster, George W Whitfield, Jenkins Pigott and Col. R. W. Singletary.

The non-resident lawyers who attend Wilson Court are Judge Howard; Judge Biggs, of Edgecombe, Dortch, Strong, Faircloth and Morrisey, of Goldsboro, W. J. Rosberry, of Green, Battle, Bunn and Thorp, of Rocky Mount, and Col. Yellowly, of Pitt. This list makes the Wilson a strong bar, not only in numbers but in character, ability and attainments.

Sherrard, the Solicitor, kept the people out of the Court House during recess, while the Judge was at dinner. The Judge adjourned Court from 12 until 2 o'clock. Sherrard asked that the Sheriff might keep order in the Court House during recess, as he had business for the Grand Jury. We wondered at Sherrard's showing so much fondness for the Court House. If it had been Johnston Court House, we take it, Sherrard would not have tarried, for it was at that Court he was convicted of manslaughter, for whipping a poor negro to death, for stealing a chicken. We told the negroes about it and shamed them for having voted for such a man, and some of them said they did not know it or they would not have so voted.

"CUSSED" FOR WALKING WITH HIM.

Charley O'Neal, an Irishman, and colorbearer of McRae's Regiment, who lost his leg at Williamsburg, cursed one of the leading members of the bar for walking the streets with Sherrard. Sherrard, so we heard, reported to the Judge that O'Neal had cursed him in the street. We told the Attorney, we did not approve of "cussing," even when the Governor did it, but we thought if "cussing" could be justified he had been properly "cussed." We know it is humiliating to see gentlemen countenancing such fellows by walking with them in the street, but Charley should not use "cuss" words, and when we tell him it is irritating the Governor, we know he will quit it.

HOTELS.

There are two Hotels in Wilson, which are well kept, we have no doubt, for so nice a town would not tolerate mean Hotels. We stopped at Mrs. Horam's private boarding house, where gentlemen will find everything that a traveller needs to make him comfortable, and give him rest.

STORES.

There are fourteen stores in Wilson which do from all accounts a thrifty business.—Some of the merchants are so well established, as to aid the farmer in his purchase of supplies and fertalizers. Where else do the village merchants do so?

PLOUGH MAKING.

Farmer & Wainright turn out many good ploughs. They have sold over 2,000 ploughs this season. They sold some in Wake and Granville.

BEE AND BEE BUSINESS.

We called on an Orange county lady, who lived in Wilson. We inquired how many bee stands she had, and the answer was, not one. We thought that a departure from her raising, for we had seen at her mother's house in Orange, from eighty to a hundred stands; and we counted in her neighbors yard across the street 20 stands.

In Russia a man's wealth is often measured by the number of his bee gums, and then again by the number of his sheep.—Wool, beeswax and honey, are among the exports of that country, and fortunes are made by sale of these articles. This must be a better country for bees than Russia, and it must be better for sheep also.

In Russia sheep are stabled and fed for two or three months in the year; no such care or expense is necessary here.

We heard three lawyers last summer, sitting at a ladies table in Edgecombe, discussing the bee business. They each resolved to engage in it, in a small way—when the flowers fade in the fall and the bees go into winter quarters. We hope they will report progress in the bee business. We should be glad to publish anything from any person from any portion of the State upon the bee or sheep business.

MAJOR JOSEPH EDWARD TATTEN.

This distinguished carpet-bagger and leader of the Governor's reconstruction staff, was pointed out to us at Wilson Court. He was not the most active but certainly the most efficient of all the Governor's staff. Judge Thomas, Judge Settle, Judge Rodman, Judge Dick, Judge Tourgee, Judge Jones, Judge Pool, Judge Henry, Judge Alden, may have each canvassed a larger field, but not one with so much force and effect. The Major's character and standing was as good, too, as any man of the party until he was lodged in jail, in the county of Edgecombe, a rebel Court. We have no reason to believe that occurrence with the party of "moral ideas" either injured his character or impaired his influence. Subsequently he was indicted for larceny, in stealing fodder from a negro, this, too, was rebel malice. The Grand Jury of Wilson, who found the bill against him, were, no doubt, as Governor Holden would say, "contumacious rebels." The case was moved from Wilson to Wayne county, where Sherrard and Brogden reside, and loyalty may be protected. If "Hon." Windy Billy Henderson, with an indictment, for stealing a mule, pending over him, can be appointed Collector for the sixth district, why can't the Major be appointed Collector for his district, for his case is on all fours with "Hon." Windy's, as there is no conviction, as yet, in either case.—Windy's case was moved from Davidson to Rowan, and Tatten's from Wilson to Wayne. It strikes us here are two cases for Dr. Menninger. It will be remembered, that a Radical "gentleman" of this city, who lived so long in the Governor's family, was responsible for the story, that Dr. Menninger, Secretary of State, was guilty of the cruel act of giving spice to a negro child, who had stolen and eaten a piece of cake out of his sideboard, in order to make her throw it up.

Question for the Doctor. If it takes ten grains to make the negro throw up the cake, how many grains will it take to make Billy throw up the mule, and Major Tatten the fodder?

By the by, Dr. Menninger should apply his detective of larceny to Judge Alden, also. This distinguished member of the staff swallowed $5,000, collected from General Littlefield for a Banking house in New York.

We have some interesting facts connected with the life, character and adventures of Major Tatten, in which Gov. Holden and the leagues figure. Most of the facts have, heretofore, been published, but they will bear repetition and throw new light upon the infamous leagues which now control the legislation of the State as well as the Federal government.

COTTON FACTORIES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

As a matter of interest to our people we copy from an article in the last Episcopal Methodist, of Baltimore, the following facts furnished by the Rev. L. Branson, of this city. The figures are taken from the new State Directory which Mr. B. is preparing, and which is nearly complete:

COTTON FACTORIES IN THE SOUTH.

As a fit accompaniment to the above facts, we publish the following statistics that are taken from the New York Day Book. The facts here presented are certainly very encouraging, but if the statistics as to other States are not nearer the truth than those given for North Carolina, then there is not much reliance to be placed in them. Mr. Branson has ascertained, as published above, that there are forty cotton factories in North Carolina. The Day Book gives but seventeen. Mr. Branson shows that there must be some 45,000 spindles alone in our cotton factories, but the Day Book gives but 24,249. Mr. Branson includes cotton and wool factories in his estimate, so of the 54,575 spindles given, we estimate over 45,000 to belong to the cotton factories alone. Mr. Branson's calculation as to the number of pounds spun of course greatly exceeds that published in the Day Book.—We feel satisfied that the estimates of the New York paper are rather under than over the true estimate for the operations in the entire South. We re-produce the following:

THE MANIA OF THE DAY.

Since the foundation of the government there has never been such an unsanctified lust for the loaves and fishes as at the present. In fact, the great distinguishing characteristic of the age is the vast horde of hungry office seekers whose mouths are fairly watering for the government fl sh pots. They swarm all over the land and threaten to devour the substance of the people. It has been announced that the new postmaster in the city of Chicago has had no less than three thousand applications for places in his office. Those who have come South have manifested the same voracious appetite for government pap, and have been generally quite fortunate in obtaining it. In North Carolina their day of overthrow is approaching, for the unhallowed greed of the scallawags will not tolerate any longer the idea of giving the State "sop" to the hungry carpet baggers. So the latter will have to take up their carpet bags and return to a more favorable clime, after awhile. We would ask them to remain with us and help us to restore this honored old State to its former condition of prosperity and comparative affluence, but we feel satisfied they will not condescend to work after having tasted the fat things supplied them by the Government.

We are always glad to hear of working people, or of capitalists, coming into our State, for we need both greatly. But the carpet-bagger is a cormorant, or a lazy drone in the Nation's vast bee hive, and is bent on consuming the sweets that have been industriously gathered by others. He came South to get office, and when his good luck fails him, and his "occupation is gone," he will go back to his own people, if he is not afraid to do so, to plunder them in turn.

One thing is suggestive about this modern mania for office. How is it that small paying offices are eagerly sought after by men who could certainly earn more by industry applied in some other way? There must be heavy perquisites somewhere.—The "extras," no doubt, bring up the deficiency. A man now-a days will give up a good paying business to take an office the salary of which will not enable him to keep "buckle and tongue" together for a year.—He expects to increase his revenue of course in some other way. A Northern paper remarks most appositely:

"Leaving out that small class of office-seekers who, having nothing to do, and, consequently, nothing to lose by a change, seek office as a means of bettering their condition, the larger share of office-seekers and holders will be found to be composed of men who desire these public positions because they afford opportunity for speculation, peculation, and legalized swindling. In other words, the charm of office-holding consists in the demoralization of public positions. We see, every day men worth next to nothing taking positions which pay two or three thousand dollars per annum, and who, at the close of a service of a year or two, will retire with a snug competence of perhaps $50,000."

There is a sad demoralization throughout the land. Men are corrupt and lazy. They want to live well without labor and are not careful as to the way in which they can accomplish it. They seek office, not for its honor, but for the chance it affords to replenish a depleted pocket.

ANOTHER CARPET-BAG PRESS.

The Wilmington Post was recently sold at auction and bid off at $650, by General French, the bag Ingis, for our "beloved" Abbott, Sprague's man. Who will run the press for him, Forney or Littlefield? We hope the new Editor, Abbott, will not forget to give in his pres for taxation.

Gov. Holden, when Editor of the Standard, once announced that Abbott had made, in one year, $75,000 and gave employment to many freedmen. Yet that year, we are informed, Abbott forgot to give in even a poll tax, on gold watch or any species of property. Let the Sheriff have revenue, Senator, as well as "peace."

For the Sentinel.

"THE SCHOONER GRAPE SHOT."

"The Schooner 'Grape Shot,' which was reported to have started for Cuba with volunteers, still lies in New York Harbor."—Extract in Sentinel of May. 8th.

The Schooner "Grape Shot" anchored in this Harbor sixteen days ago this day, and has been here ever since. According to the best information I can get she has between fifty and sixty men on board. The officers have appeared in our streets in full uniform.

I presume your paragraph was founded upon an assertion in the Evening Post of New York, of Thursday, May the 6th. That sheet must have known its statement false at the time, for it was made nearly two weeks after the "Grape Shot" had left that Port. So much for the lies which lying Radical sheets publish in order to screen the culpable neglect of the powers that be.

I am surprised that you should have put such a paragraph in the Sentinel when the statement, that the "Grape Shot" was detained by the Custom House officials here, was made by a Newbern paper, knowing the fact, and copied by the Sentinel more than a week ago. Who can have any confidence in the statements of the New York Evening Post hereafter?

The elegant residence and Banking House of Hon. R. Y. McAden, in Charlotte, are nearly complete. Capt. J. E. Allen, formerly of Granville, is the architect.

There are fifteen drinking Shops in Charlotte.

INJURED.—It is greatly feared that the late cold snap has greatly injured the cotton prospect through this section. Much of the cotton in the ground has failed to come up, and unless the present balmy weather succeeds in bringing it forth a heavy loss will be sustained, although it is not too late to replant, as indeed we learn some of the farmers are already doing. It is to be hoped, however, that the damage will not be as heavy as it is surmised.—Weldon News.

THE WADE DITCHER MURDERERS SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.—On Saturday evening last, Deputy Sheriff Horace Reid returned from Tarboro' in charge of Gus Baker and Jim Thomas, two of the Wade Ditcher murderers, (George Bayline being already in the Halifax jail,) and at three o'clock the three prisoners, under strong guard, were brought into the Court room at Halifax to receive sentence of death at the hands of Judge Watts.

We understand that Governor Holden will be petitioned in behalf of these murderers, but upon what ground we do not know, as the murder, which was committed at this place, was of a most atrocious character, and we have never heard a doubt expressed as to the guilt of the condemned. While for the sake of humanity we dislike to see capital punishment inflicted, yet in this instance we think the law should be meted out to its fullest extent.—Ib.

INSPECTOR'S BONDS.—It is a noticeable fact that, taken generally, the bonds of the Inspectors for this port, submitted to and approved by the County Commissioners yesterday, are of far more value as to the sureties than those of any officials who have been hoisted over the necks of our people since the inauguration of Radical misrule in North Carolina. Possibly the presentment of the grand jury of the Special Court may have put a "big scare" on some. Be this as it may, it is quite noticeable to observe the number of Southern gentlemen who have so freely signed the bonds of the negro Inspectors. Though they may vote against us and place parties in power who deprive our people of almost every right, still they know to whom to look for those little substantial favors and aid. The sympathy of our people for the negro is too strong to be easily uprooted, even by his mad and violent measures against them. We would not, however, have it destroyed, but rather that it should be fostered and encouraged, so that, perhaps, he may be led right at last.—Wil. Journal.

A pleasant surprise greeted those who visited the Confederate Cemetery, in the handsome iron railing which encloses the ground. It was the gift of parties in this city and Baltimore, and may it ever stand a monument to their liberality and the glory of our departed heroes.—Ib.

BREAKE GROUND.—Col. L. S. Williams, agent for E. M. Holt & Co., has commenced the excavation of the basement for their large Store. This firm has a very large capital, and Col. Williams has the experience, mercantile skill, popularity and nerve to build up an immense trade.—Char. Times.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Saddlery, Bacon and Flour at G. T. Stronach's.

One Dollar a Chance at the Drawing on May 22, by Hester, Bros. & Co.

We were pleased to see in our office to day young Leo D. Heartt, formerly of Raleigh, but now living in Philadelphia with Messrs. Hess, Rogers and Chambers, Importers of English and German Hosiery, Shirts, &c. Young Leo is a son of one of our best known merchants and grandson of the veterable Dennis Heartt, of Hillsboro', the oldest living Editor, we suppose, on the Continent.

A SERIOUS FIRE.—Our esteemed citizen, M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., we regret very much to learn, met with a very serious loss this morning. His large and elegant brick dwelling, together with the kitchen, situated in the south eastern portion of the city, was consumed by fire. The fire was discovered at about 2 o'clock this morning.—It originated in the kitchen, in one of the corners farthest from the fire-place. It is thought to have been the work of an incendiary. A part of his furniture was saved, but, of course, in a damaged condition. It is reported that he was insured for $12,-000 in the Underwriter's. We hope it is so. Fortunately, as we learn, Mrs. Bledsoe and children were from home on a visit, and were saved that intense alarm and excitement which would be necessarily consequent upon such a calamitous occurrence at such an hour of the night.

A FACTORY BURNT.—We have just heard of another heavy calamity. On the 12th. inst., the tobacco factory of Mr. G. W. Norwood, of Roxboro N. C together with a large quantity of leaf and manufac ured tobacco was destroyed. The fire was discovered a hour or two before day break.—Several other buildings were burnt. The loss heavy, but not ascertained.

THE AMERICAN YEAR BOOK AND NATIONAL REGISTER FOR 1869.—To any one desiring a book of reference we can recommend the above statistical work, which has taken the place of the old North American Almanac. It is even more full and complete than that. Everything the cursory reader desires to learn of the Old or the New world may here be found.

EXPLANATORY DRAWING.—The North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency will have a drawing at one dollar a chance, at Tucker Hall, on the 22nd inst. Their purpose, they say, is more to illustrate the plan of the large drawing that is to take place hereafter, than for the profits. Three gentlemen of the city will superintend the drawing. The articles drawn will be delivered immediately after the drawing is over. The drawing, we are assured, will certainly take place.

MORE SUBSCRIBERS.—We have just received a goodly list of subscribers from Wilson county. Also a list from Heathville, Halifax county. Send in your names friends.

A DELIGHTFUL rain fell last night and every thing looks cheerful and promising this morning.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

The anniversary meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society, held in New York yesterday, was slimly attended. Wendell Phillips made the opening speech, and said that the signs of the times were all anti slavery. Resolutions were adopted favoring the fifteenth amendment, endorsing Grant's inaugural and the appointment of colored men to office, and praising the Cuban insurgents for abolishing slavery. The resolutions also assert that Southern reconstruction was based on education, and denounces the government for restricting the elective franchise in the District of Columbia.

Miss H. E. Bailey while personating Juliet in Buffalo on Monday night accidently caught her dagger in the folds of her dress, penetrating below the left breast and striking a rib, breaking off the point of the dagger. The wound is serious, but not dangerous. A probe failed to reach the piece.

Walter Brown, the caroman, mounted on a velocipede, beat the horse John Stewart in a race at B ston yesterday. Brown had to go five miles, and the horse in harness ten miles. Brown's time was 26.20, the horse went 9 miles in 26 35. Brown's best mile was done in 4 28, that of the horse in 2.47½. Brown's other miles were run in 5.29, 5.44, 5.39 and 5.16.

The burning of Pyle & Co.'s extensive silk mills, at Patterson, N. J., on Monday, involved a loss of $300,000. No insurance. Some twenty other buildings were burned at the same time, entailing a loss of $200,000. Eighty families were turned into the streets, and 650 persons thrown out of employment.

The American and Foreign Christian Union met in New York yesterday and re elected Thomas DeWit President. The report claims great missionary successes in Roman Catholic countries, particularly in South America. The yearly receipts were $111,760, and expenditures $112,000.

The North German emigrant ship Christie arrived at New York yesterday in 36 days from Bremen, with 422 passengers.—She had thirteen cases of small-pox on board, and four deaths occurred from the disease during the passage.

The artillery school at Fortress Monroe is again in successful operation. Gen. Barnes remains at the head of the school, and all the new officers assigned to aid him have reported except three, who are at present at distant posts.

A locomotive ran into a street car filled with passengers in Chicago yesterday, and four or five persons were seriously, if not fatally injured. Altogether about ten or twelve persons were injured.

Dr. Chapin, of New York, for some time past ill with rheumatism, has recovered.

The Rev. Dr. Hodge has been reading an essay on "Irony" before the Women's Club of Boston, and a local paper dares to suggest that an essay on "Ironing" would have been better.

ADDRESS DELIVERED BEFORE THE MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION OF RALEIGH, ON THE OCCASION OF THE ANNIVERSAY, MONDAY, THE 10TH OF MAY.

BY MAJ. W. M. ROBBINS.

LADIES OF THE MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION AND FELLOW-CITIZENS:—We have come with sad and reverent feelings to pay our annual tribute of grateful remembrance to the noble dead and to hold communion with their spirits. Far away from the world which worships only the fortunate, we have come to lay our tender offerings and drop our tears on the dust of those for whom no victor's chaplets will ever be woven: for those who struggled and died for a cause which is dead to them, and who fell beneath a banner which once floated fair and high, but is now folded forever.—We have come to do honor to men to whom Fortune has allotted the cypress and not the laurel, but who have left behind them a legacy of undying renown to their country.

The words of sincere grief are unstudied and impulsive, and we are not here to day to speak or listen to cold and formal phrases, but to pour out our heart. These are our brother's graves. Some of these fallen heroes had their childhood's home on the shores of the ever-sounding Gulf, others amid the wild prairies of Texas, or under the palmetto of our sister Carolina. From the banks of the Chatahoochie, the Alabama, the Savannah,—from mountain and from plain, they came at the country's call, the champions of a common cause; and now they sleep together here, under these grassy hillocks decorated by fair hands, and they all are our brothers. Many of their names are unknown to us; but we pay our tribute, also to the unknown dead, for we know that somebody's darling slumbers under each of these little mounds. The heart of mother, wife, or sister perhaps ached and hoped long for their return but they never came. Often when evening twilight was settling down upon orange grove and jessamine bower, loved ones, in the homes far away, have gazed forth wistfully for the faces and forms of these whom death has consigned to our keeping forever. The eye has looked and the ear has listened for them, but they came not. Only night and despair came. Let us drop a flower and a tear on their graves, and hope that gentle hearts and fair hands may this day do the same for our loved ones that went and never came again.

We are the children of a bereaved and saddened land. The South sits to-day as a mourning matron, clad in widow's weeds, weeping at the sepulchre of her noblest sons—the sons who died for her. Well may she weep; for no land ever lamented more glorious heroes or more devoted patriots. And well may she cherish their sleeping dust, for her wealth, her splendor, and her power, are gone; only her honor and her graves are left.

It is not my purpose on this occasion to discuss questions which have been decided by force, nor to re-open controversies which the sword has settled. Nor is it in my heart to speak harshly of those who, in the late unfortunate conflict, fought for the cause of our adversaries. Doubtless many of them were sincere patriots, as they were certainly brave men. Doubtless many of them were inspired with noble sentiments, and were honestly and enthusiastically devoted to a cause which appeared sacred in their eyes, and the success of which they deemed essential to the welfare of America. If they really fought for Empire, and not for liberty, they did so unwillingly.

Nor shall I say anything with the design of awakening useless feelings of discontent with the results of that gigantic civil strife. I recognize the grand principle, and derive consolation from it, that

"There's a Divinity that shapes our end, Rough hew them as we will."

And with a firm trust in a superintending Providence, who moulds the destiny of nations as of men, unblenching we can look the dread mysterious future in the face, and fearlessly await what it may have in store for us.

But while I would do justice to our late adversaries, and would not encourage vain regrets over their success and our defeat, nevertheless, in the name of these sleeping heroes around us, I ask the world to do just ce also to their motives, their characters, and their deeds, as well as to the cause in which they perished. As for that cause itself, I care not at this time to enter upon any extended remarks respecting its merits or demerits. The time has not yet come for that. Men's minds are not yet sufficiently impartial. Posterity alone will be calm enough to weigh these great questions, after time shall have brought to ripeness all the fruits of our overthrow.

But I shall be pardoned for saying, in a single word, what was our own view of our own cause. It was, in our opinion and in the opinion of these men who died for it, a contest for the right of self government.—Ten States and eight millions of men claimed the privilege of governing themselves in their own way, and it was denied them.

On the same fields, less than a century ago, our fathers fought for the right of three millions to govern themselves; and having established it, they made this great principle the foundation stone of American institutions. The world has ceased to call them rebels, and now honors them as patriots and sages. If a struggle for self-government was their glory, by what strange alchemy is it transmuted into our crime!—None other than the difference of fortune.—Successful, the world calls them heroes. Unsuccessful, some dare to call us traitors.

But, after all, it is an unsafe rule to measure virtue by its good fortune, and make success the test of excellence. This never can be true in a world which has worshipped demons and crucified its God. Might makes right among savages only.—But wise men, who look into the essence of things, well know that while fortune is fickle, truth is changeless and immortal.

Upon the defeat of our armies we lost the privilege of self government. Strangers now dictate our laws. Strangers fill our offices. Strangers occupy our places at the council boards of the country. We are as aliens in our own land. Liberty's holy shrine opens no door to us unless we crawl as suppliants or basely forswear ourselves. Strangers and pervants bear rule over us.—Our once resplendant and still fondly beloved South has taken her place in the list of crushed and bleeding nations, where the names of Israel and Carthage and Sarmatia and Erin stood before. And like those down trodden sisters in misfortune, she too has the proud consolation to know that even in defeat her glory shines out with an effulgence which dims the glory of the conqueror.

Her dead children, however else disfranchised, have conquered for themselves and her a place and a name on History's proudest pages. It is fashionable with some to sneer at the brief existence of the political fabric which we erected. Four years was indeed a short life for a nation.—But what a four years was that! It was long enough to achieve unsurpassed renown and bequeath to the future a story that will never perish.

It was a favorite notion with theorizers before the war, that our climate and institutions were unfavorable to the growth of a vigorous race of men, and that the South was occupied by a degenerate race whom indolence and luxury had enfeebled and made contemptible. This Southern sun which had warmed our temperaments and given us enthusiasm, fire, and passion, was supposed to have relaxed our sinews and destroyed our energy. In the day of trial the world was soon convinced of its mistake. At the first tap of the drum, there came forth from mansion and from cottage, all over our sunny clime, those who proved themselves no weak and pampered sons of idleness, but stalwart men with hearts to dare and hands to do. Full of fire and dash, they were no less noted for firmness and tenacity. If their heroism on the field was wonderful, so was their perseverance against difficulties, their fortitude amid hardships, and their cheerfulness in suffering. There are those here who were witnesses of their high courage and noble firmness in the day of battle, and which it is but simple truth to say were unsurpassed even by the Tenth Legion of Cæsar or the old Guard of Napoleon. And these fair ladies who are listening to me to day, but who a short while since were ministering angels in the hospitals have themselves seen how unmurmuringly and unflinchingly the pangs of disease and the torture of wounds were endured by the Southern soldier.—Amid cold and hunger, hardship and danger, those peerless battalions struggled on; and again and again did they wrest the palm from overwhelming numbers of brave and well-appointed adversaries. What army of ancient or modern days can point to more brilliant victories than those which these men won at Fredericksburg and Manassas, Chancellorsville and Chickahominy, Spottsylvania and Chickamauga, the hundred other celebrated fields where the Confederate heroes saw the backs of their enemies. The wild yell of these charging brigades yet echoes through the world and will continue to reverberate along down the corridors of time to the most distant ages.

Must we speak of these things with bated breath, lest we give offence to those who are zealous of our renown? Must we forbear to praise the sublime deeds of our sons and brothers, lest we be accused of disloyalty? No! we will prove our claim to loyalty by being loyal to Human Nature, and to the sacred memory of our matchless braves. They gave their lives for us, and in return we will give them all that we can now bestow—our proud plaudits and eternal gratitude. Even if we should become so recreant to all the better instincts of the heart as to forget these things, the muse of History will never forget them. Future ages and other nations will take up the undying theme and recount the famous story. Poets will seek among these records the materials for its most enchanting creations, and Romance will love to linger here and wreathe the chaplets of amaranth around the deathless names of Lee and Jackson, Polk and Stuart, Bragg and Beauregard.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always. Plain as this is, there is no neglect of its compositions. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating prevents them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action,—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their to regular action to health, and hence are the first origin of disease, such derangements are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic, and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to all forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

For the Sentinel.

THE MAY MEMORIAL, 1869.

I see afar a glittering tower,
Stately and grand it meets the view;
Raised by a nation in pride and power,
To guard the rest of the men in blue.—

Over all my side each hillock swelling,
Hides down troddes and rebel clay:
No graven marble, the story telling,
The names and deeds of the men in grey.

Be it so. But in song and story,
Saving their fame for a future day,
Wreathed around with the truest glory,
Shall live the deeds, of the men in grey—

What though towers and fanes are wanting,
To blazon their names to the glaring day?
Those they defended with grief are giving
Tokens of love to the men in grey.

Far and near, from Potomac's waters,
O'er hill and valley, by river and bay,
Lovingly watched by their country's daughters,
Calmly are sleeping the men in grey.

Soft be their slumber. In Death reposing
Dreamless and quiet, they wait the day,
When time and Justice the truth disclosing,
The world shall weep for the men in grey.

Sweet be their sleep. Each lowly pillow,
Lies soft enough 'neath the secession clay;
And over their graves, by the drooping willow,
Their sisters shall mourn for the men in grey.

Our love still blooms, and these Flowers are tokens,
That every sweet May waits away,
From hopes that are crushed and altars broken,
A message of love to the men in grey.

For us they fought, and for us they perished,
Nobly we dwelt, till they passed away;
Now by us be their sumbers cherished,
We watch the sleep of the men in grey.

The trust is holy, we'll sacred keep it,
To this no tyrant extends his sway—
Faithful and tender, our hearts will meet it,
We owe this love, to the men in grey.

Day by day is the army swelling,
As each broken soldier drops away,
And is lowered down to his narrow dwelling,
Wrapped like his comrades in faded grey.

God knows best—but our hearts are riven,
The night is dark, we can see no day.
Yet thankful we are, for the comfort given,
That calmly at rest, are the men in grey.

Would you awake them? No! our sorrow,
Let us endure it, as best we may—
They are in peace. No dawning morrow,
Brings insult now, to the men in grey.

Years must pass, and the stately towers,
That tell of our foes must fall away,
But till the earth brings forth no flowers,
A tower shall watch by the men in grey.

A tower of Love, that cannot be shaken,
One, that no time, or change, can move.
The men in grey, shall not be forsaken.
They will have the guard of their Country's Love.

WASHING COMPOUND.
Patented Sept. 22, 1868.
REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.
The Patentee claims for this Soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:
First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.
Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft.
Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that their fibres do not contract under its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.
Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.
Fifth the goods do not require any rubbing or patent washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

LIFE INSURANCE.
NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,
$1,000,000,
PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and the liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

NATIONAL

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,592 policies.
Amount insured, $10,008,550.00
Total Premiums, 350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 699
" New England Mutual, 343
" Phœnix Mutual, 335
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.
In its 10th year, 1,260 "
And in its 20th year, 2,847 "
this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

Sentinel.
PUBLISHED AT THE
CAPITAL OF THE STATE,
Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."
In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.
This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.
The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the best blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.
The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.
Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.
The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.
No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.
